

Speed Dating Note Taking

- First round: Find your “sole mate” (someone with similar style of shoes) from the other side of the room.
- Trade one answer each and then WAIT for the bell. You will then move on to another student that has a different paper than you. And so on until we are done.
- When done sit down in your seat and fill out the boxes that ask “Who’s ahead? Significance?” for each box.

Why was the Arms Race an important aspect of the Cold War? How did it affect the Soviet/West relations?

Put your response in the box on the back of your worksheet.
