

Bellwork

- Get out homework calendar and notes from yesterday.
- Answer the following questions on your Bellwork sheet
 - What issues allowed the Soviets to take control of Eastern Europe following the end of WWII?
 - What were the three ways that the Soviets used to continue their control in Eastern Europe?
 - How was Khrushchev different from Stalin?
 - Why was Soviet control tested in Eastern Europe?

Hungarian and Czechoslovakian Uprising

- 1 person from each pod grab an uprising chart
- Fill out the chart for your pods assigned case study.

Hungarian and Czechoslovakian Uprising

- Find a buddy from the other case study that has the same color hair.
- Share the items from your chart and receive the other case study in return.
- Wait for further instructions.

Closure

- Complete the Similarities/Differences column
- On the back of the worksheet, answer the following question:
 - How similar, or different, were the uprisings in Hungary and Czechoslovakia? Provide evidence from the case studies to support your argument. Must be at least 2 paragraphs in length.